5. INFORMATION FOR PATRONS WITH A SENSORY IMPAIRMENT

Infra-red Hearing Enhancement

The theatre uses the Sennheiser infra-red system across its three auditoria.

There are two types of hearing device available to patrons. These are all free of charge.

Patrons can only access assisted hearing at this theatre by using one of the following devices:

Necklace: To use with your own hearing aid with a 'T' setting (available in the Main House and Ustinov Studio.)

Headset: To use without a hearing aid. If you have a hearing aid, it should be turned off whilst using the headset (available in the Main House, Ustinov Studio and The Egg.)

Available from every open bar and from The Egg reception. Please ask a member of staff to provide you with the equipment and instructions for use.

A demonstration device is available at the Box Office in the Main House foyer if you wish to familiarise yourself with the device before the bars open.

If you require the Sennheiser system in The Egg theatre, please inform The Egg on 01225 823409 or via email on egg.reception@theatreroyal.org.uk prior to the performance date.

Please note while the Sennheiser system can improve audio access for most users, the system may not be suitable for everyone. Due to the nature and severity of individual hearing loss, we cannot guarantee adequate amplification for all individuals.

The theatre does not have an induction loop system.

In the event of an emergency evacuation, please leave the building via the nearest exit unless instructed otherwise by a member of staff. Go to and remain in the assembly point in Kingsmead Square and await further instruction by theatre staff.

Evacuation for Wheelchair Users

In the event of an emergency evacuation, a member of staff will direct wheelchair users to a designated refuge point, where they will have access to an intercom system. Staff will then continue to assist patrons out of the building to the assembly point.

THE EGG

In the event of an emergency evacuation, please evacuate the building via the nearest exit unless instructed otherwise by a member of staff. Go to and remain in the assembly point in Kingsmead Square and await further instruction by theatre staff.

P.E.E.P.S

Personal Emergency Evacuation Procedure System

The Theatre operates a P.E.E.P system whereby, if you have any mobility concerns, staff can assist you in an emergency evacuation

On arrival, please inform a member of staff of your particular needs. The staff will then advise you whether, in the instance of an emergency evacuation, you should remain in your seat or be assisted by a member of staff to a refuge point. Once all ambulant patrons have cleared the building, a member of staff will assist you out of the building and to the assembly point.
