

Hello and welcome to Football Freddie!

The first character we meet is TV Jeff. He might chat to you about football before welcoming us to Freddie's football training in her "back yard stadium".

Freddie arrives and show us her football skills. She LOVES football and her favourite team TOWN.

A commentator describes Freddie's footballing and then asks what's next? Freddie decides to go and join in a game in the park.

The commentator and Freddie arrive at the park, but Freddie suddenly feels a bit too shy and small to ask to join in. She's disappointed and goes back to the yard, upset.

In the yard Freddie finds a tin, full of old football treasures. She wishes she was a real footballer and magically, a real footballer, from the olden days appears.

His name is also Fred Farren! He must be Freddie's great-great-great- Uncle. And he's on the team for TOWN!

Uncle Fred and Freddie play football in the yard, Freddie teaches Fred her new skill “the Farren flick”. They talk about what a brilliant street this is, full of TOWN fans.

Uncle Fred describes the Town stadium on a match day and everyone helps to build the atmosphere in the stands until, magically, we are all transported back in time to the TOWN stadium in the olden days.

It's cup final day! TOWN are facing their rivals Rovers and Uncle Fred is a reserve. He and Freddie watch the game from the bench. We hear an old-fashioned commentator describe the action and we watch Uncle Fred and Freddie watch the game. Town are losing 1-0 at half time.

We hear the manager give a team talk and can offer ideas to help the team win.

Uncle Fred and Freddie get the TOWN song going and everyone joins in to lift the team's spirits. The captain scores a goal but is injured and Uncle Fred has to replace him. Uncle Fred nervously joins the game.

Suddenly the imaginary ball comes to Uncle Fred and he performs the Farren Flick, sending the defenders the wrong way and scores the winning goal! Town have won the cup! Everyone celebrates!

Uncle Fred and Freddie head home and Uncle Fred says it's time to say goodbye. He goes back to his time and Freddie is ready to go back to the park.

Freddie and the commentator return to the park and Freddie confidently asks to join in the game. Everyone becomes part of Freddie's team and take part in a special game of puppet football.

Freddie uses the Farren Flick and scores a winning goal.

TV Jeff returns for post-match interviews—everyone joined in and it was a great game of football.

They think it's all over – it is now!
Goodbye and well played!
