What to Expect

Scouts! The Musical is a musical. A musical is a story told by actors, made up of scenes and songs. This musical has 7 performers, each playing multiple characters.

The show is made up of two acts, a 50 minute first act & 40 minute second act, with an interval in between.

The show uses lights and live music to create the story. The set is made up of three tree stumps and three big flags.

Main Characters

AYESHA

The show centres around the annual Scout Games where Scouts from around the world have gathered to compete. Ayesha is one of this year's competitors.

JOE

Joe is another competitor in the Scout Games.

SCOUT LEADER DYLAN

Scout Leader Dylan is in charge of this year's Scout Games.

ROSIE

Rosie is another competitor in the Scout Games.

CHARLOTTE

Charlotte is an intruder who plans to sabotage the Scout Games.

LINUS LIONHEART

Linus Lionheart won the Scout Games of 1999 and now hosts nature documentaries.

Act One

The Scouts gather to compete in this year's Scout Games.

Several audience members are also invited onstage to compete.

Charlotte enters the Scout Games in disguise. Knowing that phones are forbidden in the competition, she cunningly leaves one on the ground for someone to pick up.

Joe and Ayesha, who have made it through the heats, are forced to get to know each other. Joe tells Ayesha about his outlook on life in an attempt to befriend her. However, Ayesha finds the phone and plants it in Joe's pocket.

Rosie and Charlotte compete against each other. Charlotte is distraught when Rosie wins and goes through to the next round.

Having seen Rosie's potential, Charlotte hypnotises her, in the hope that Rosie will win the competition and carry out Charlotte's evil plan.

Ayesha and Joe get a better understanding of each other, and for the first time Ayesha finds a friend in Joe. The remaining Scouts then compete against each other in the next challenge.

Ayesha regrets planting the phone in Joe's pocket and spends the next challenge sneakily trying to get it back.

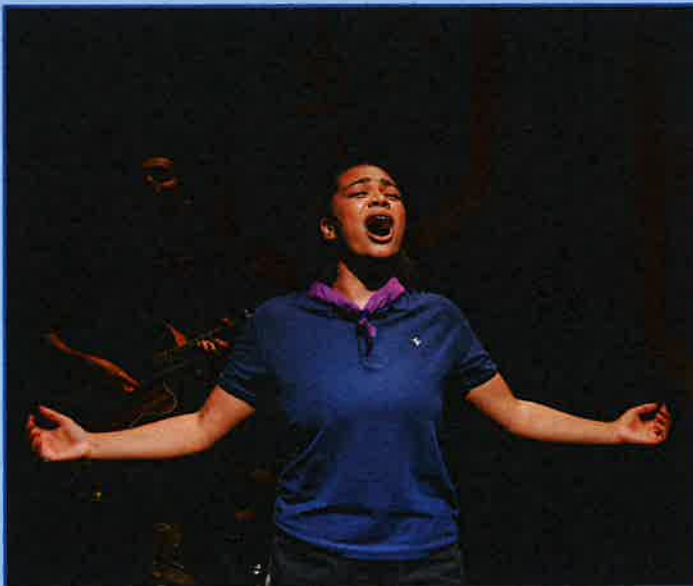

Ayesha purposely throws the challenge to help Joe progress in the competition. However, Charlotte rings the phone, which causes Joe to get disqualified.

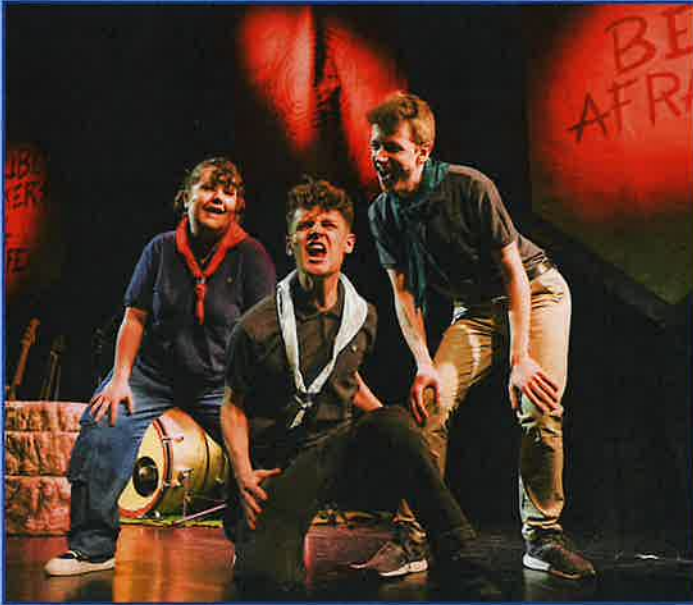

Scout Leader Dylan explains that Ayesha will take Joe's place in the final. Feeling betrayed by Ayesha, Joe leaves.

Charlotte attempts to hypnotise Scout Leader Dylan to ensure that Rosie will win the competition. However, Scout Leader Dylan and Ayesha escape.

Ayesha finds Joe and explains to him that she needs his help. However, Joe refuses. Ayesha is determined to salvage her friendship and save the day.

Act Two

Joe is confronted by the hypnotised Scouts.

Meanwhile, Linus Lionheart, filming his latest nature documentary, shares his outlook on life.

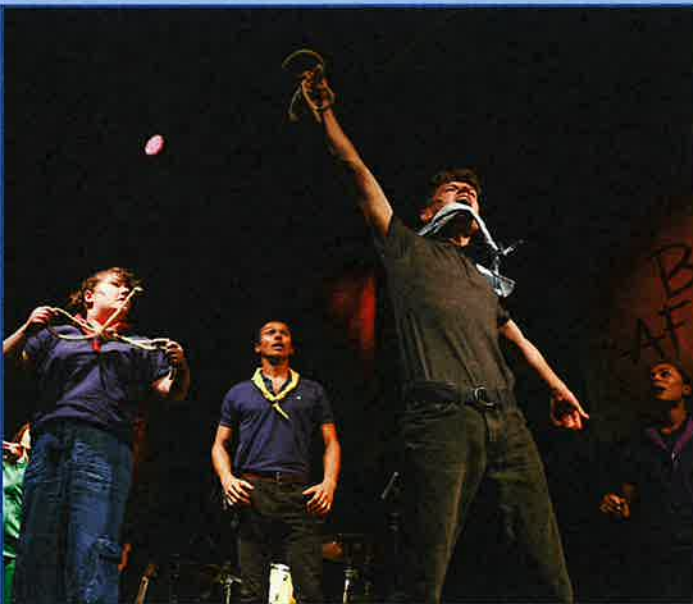

Charlotte's minions try to hypnotise Joe but Ayesha saves him.

Ayesha makes amends with Joe. Together they are determined to stop Charlotte once and for all.

Ayesha gives up her place in the competition so that Joe can compete in the final challenge.

Joe faces his fears and is victorious!

Angered, Charlotte tries to hypnotise the audience but Linus Lionheart saves the day.

Linus Lionheart offers Charlotte a place in the Scouts and she decides to change her ways.

Everyone reflects on their journey and the skills they have learnt along the way.
